AYLSWORTH GENEALOGY.

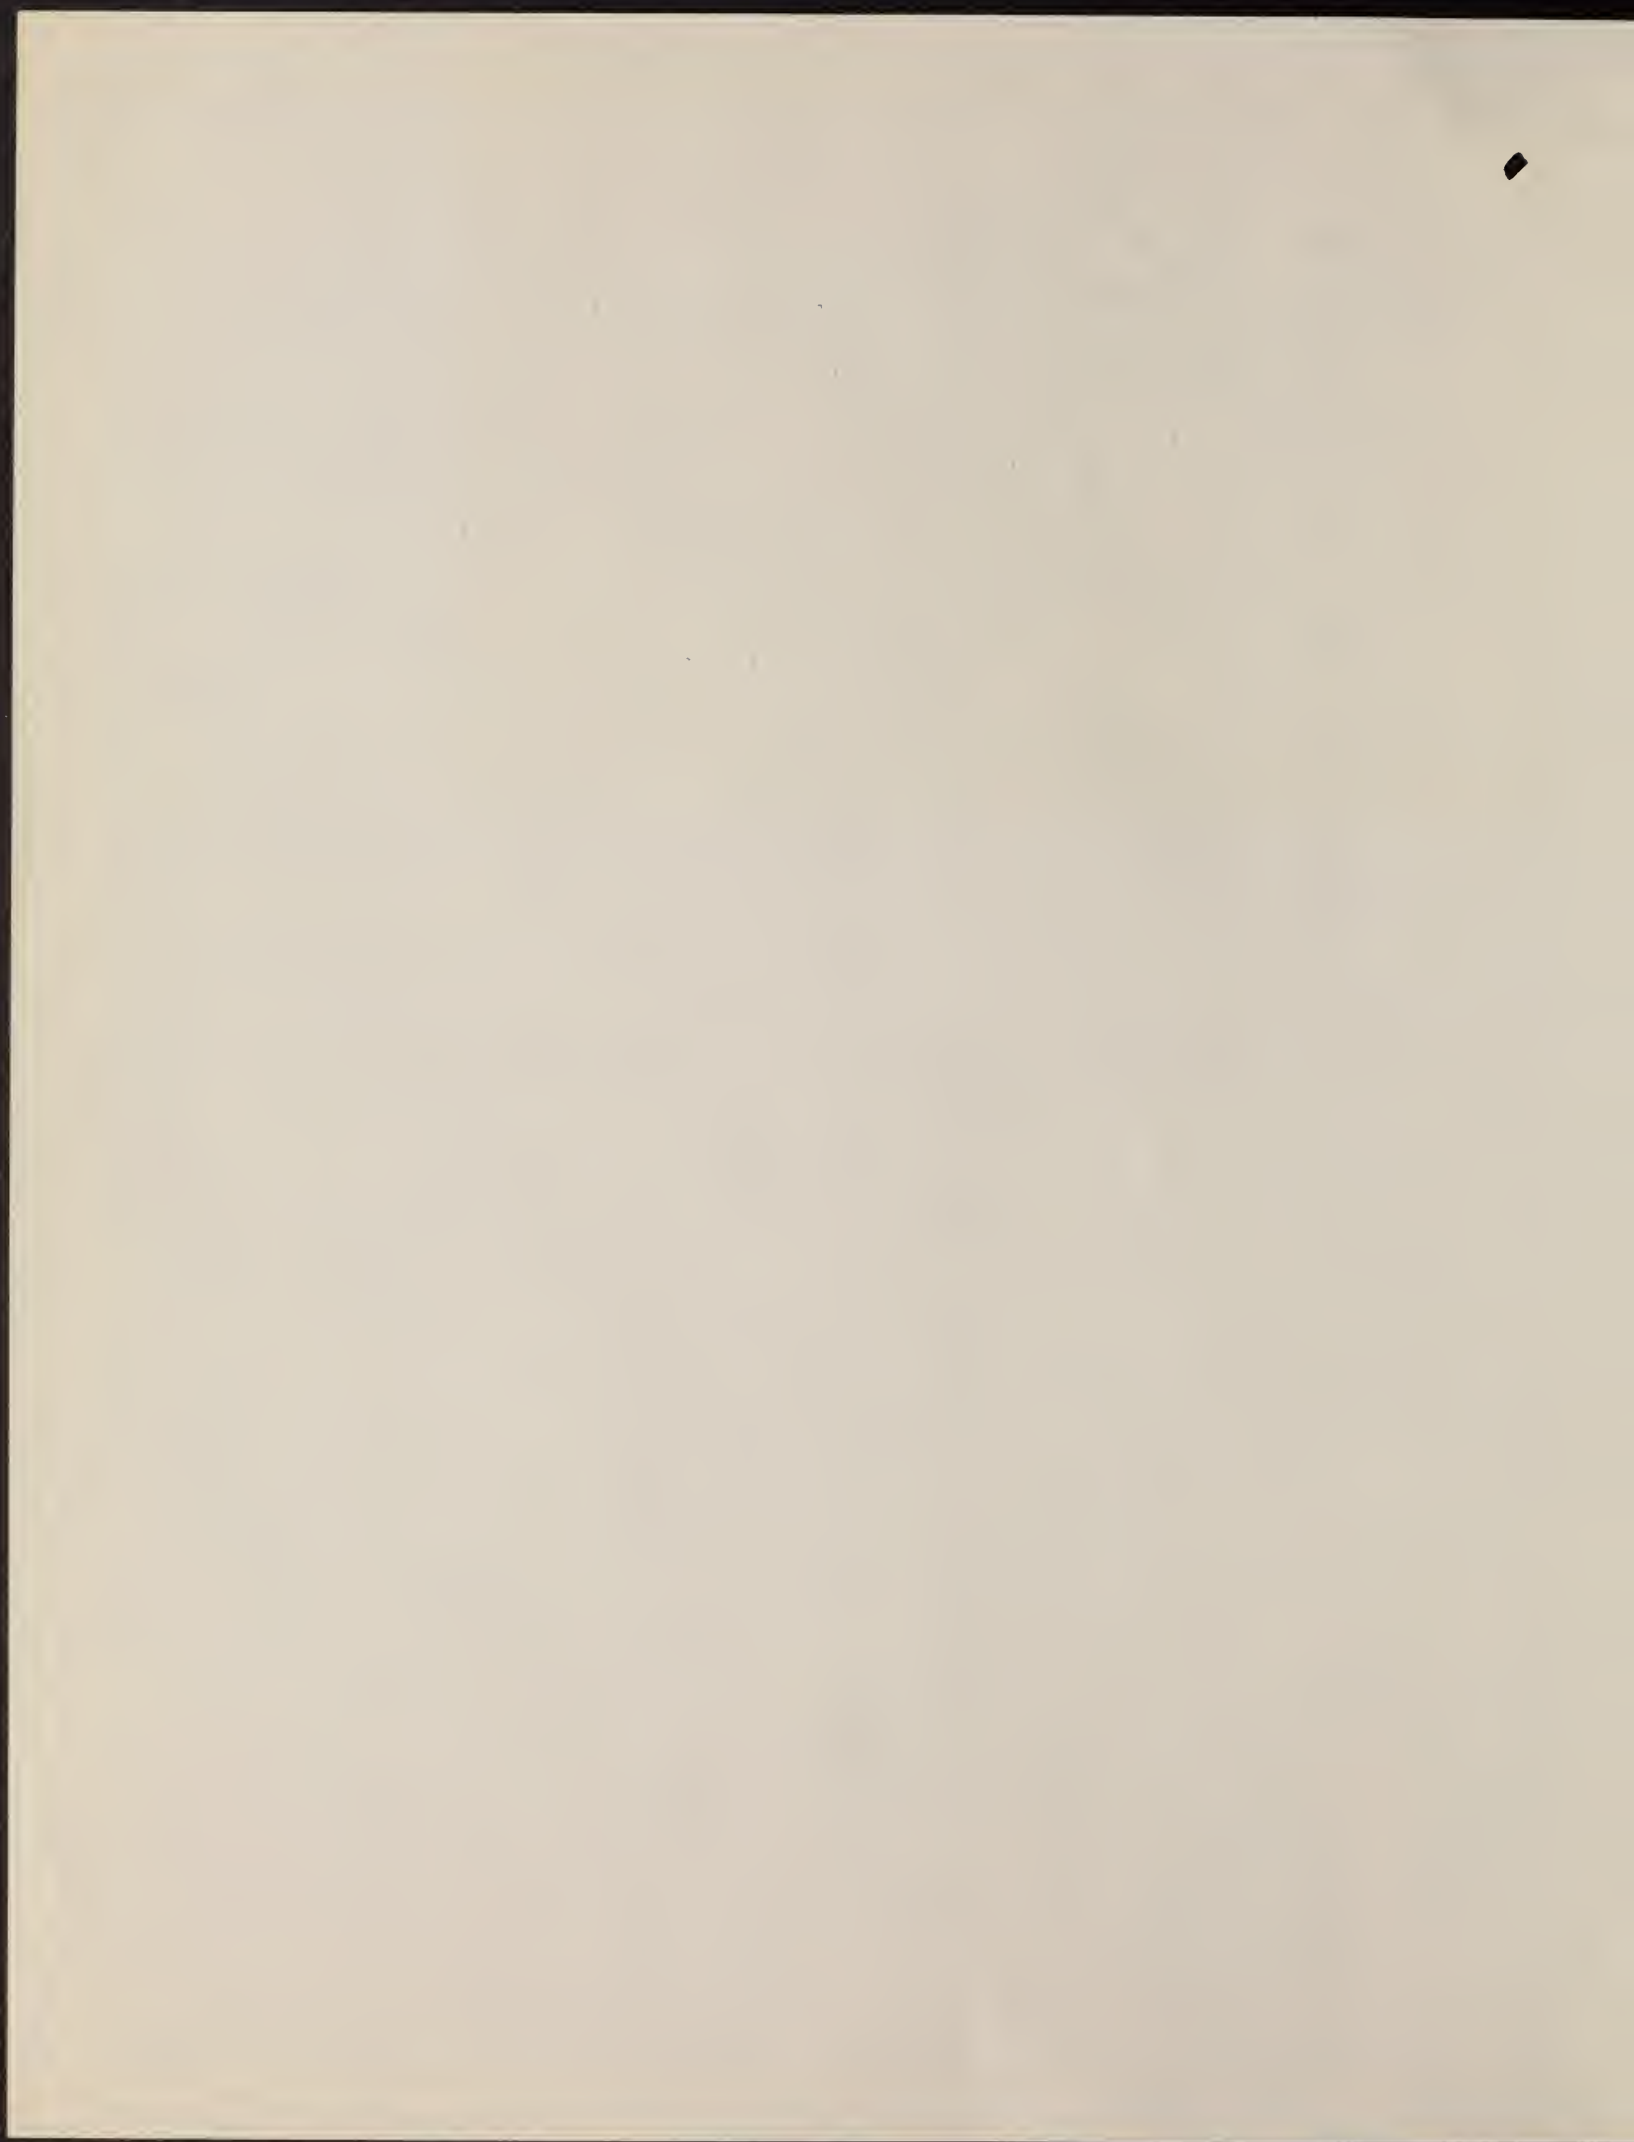

22. Arthur (3) (Philip 2, Arthur 1) married Freelove Dyer, sister of William Dyer, whose widow married 24 Philip Aylworth, brother of 22 Arthur.

24. Philip, married Deborah (Waite) Dyer, July 1, 1753. She of Exeter, widow of William Dyer, late of North Kingstown, brother of Freelove Dyer, wife of Philip's brother, Arthur Aylsworth.

Letters of administration were issued to Deborah Dyer, widow of William Dyer, deceased, Oct. 9, 1749 (North Kingstown Records). First inventory amounted to upwards of £ 300.0.0. Two others were afterwards presented, amount not known. In the year 1760 Barret Dyer desired the town council to approve of Philip Aylworth as his guardian (North Kingstown Records).

It is probable that Philip & Deborah emigrated about this time, for on the 18th of Feb., 1772, they deeded land in West Greenwich to Judiah Aylworth. The deed says: "Philip Aylworth of New Britain, Dutchess Co., New York," and mentions his wife, Deborah Aylworth. Her name is not signed to this deed. As near as can be learned they went to Canada about 1790 or 1791; remained in Ernesttown for a time, but crossed into Prince Edward County, where she died, probably at the house of her son, Barret Dyer, advanced in years and not long after their arrival in Prince Edward County. Philip went back to Columbia County, New York, but returned to Prince Edward County, where he died suddenly, when in the field at the home of his grand daughter's husband, Asa Werden, at the age of perhaps 90 years.
